GERMANS HARVEST GRAIN ON FRENCH BATTLE FRONT.

(By Review Leased Wire.) HEADQUARTERS OF THE GER-MAN ARMY ON THE SOMME, July 24.-(Via Berlin, July 26, to London, July 27 .- The greatest allied offensive has not availed to check the rich barvest in the fertile lands in the occunied French provinces. The German soldier, wielder of the sword and plowshare, too, has planted the fields right up to the line of trenches, and not the least striking impression the long automobile tour made by the Associated Press correspondent on the front of Picardy and He de France was left by the sight of many soldier barvesters swinging cradles of broad fields of ripened rve, loading stacked sheaves into wagons and feeding the threshing machines in utter disregard for the great battle raging almost within rifle shot.

The crack guard regiment gathered a crop of hay from a field so close to the French that the grain could only be cut at night and carried back to vacant fields where it could be threshed and cured. The harvest will be well worth the risk. Great fields of wheat, oats, rve and notathes were to be seen on every
